Have you taken classes from GDAC or are you currently enrolled in a class? _____

If yes, which class(es)? _____

I have enclosed a copy of my dog's current rabies certificate. Please include a copy for each dog that will be using GDAC equipment and facilities.

I have filled in the attached Gallatin County Fairgrounds release form.

GDAC is a volunteer organization. Without the efforts of volunteers, GDAC would not be able to offer the wide and growing variety of dog related activities to members and the community. As a GDAC member in good standing, I agree to volunteer a minimum of 20 hours (10 hours for juniors) during the calendar year 2007.

I understand that sport has inherent dangers and hereby consign, waive and release an and all rights to claims for damages against the Galloping Dog Agility and Flyball Club for any injuries incurred by me or my dog(s) while participating in any activity with (or for) the club.

Please check one below:

- $30 GDAC Individual Membership
 $40 GDAC Family Membership
 $10 GDAC Junior Membership

2010 Equipment Use:

GDAC offers qualifying members the opportunity to use club equipment and facilities for independent practice. To be eligible for this benefit, you must be able to demonstrate that you understand how to safely execute all agility obstacles and that you are able to train your dog in a safe and positive manner.

GDAC barn and facility use costs $5.00/month per membership. A full year of use costs $60.00. GDAC will pro-rate the cost of barn use for the months remaining in the membership year at the rate of $5.00 of month. (e.g. April '10- January '11 @ $5.00 month = $50.00). You must pay for the months remaining in the year.

Please check with your GDAC instructor to apply for this benefit. They will sign a permission slip verifying your eligibility.

If you are not currently in GDAC classes but would like to enroll or, you feel you have enough previous experience to train independently, a member of our training committee will assess your experience and refer you to an appropriate class or grant you permission to train independently if appropriate.
